Magda began her career as a telephone operator at Sanlam. Later she was promoted to a branch consultant. Her outgoing personality, love of people and passion for perfume, enabled her to generate a very good second income.

After she gained a lot of business experience as the owner and manager of two well known and lucrative video franchises, she decided to start selling perfume on a full-time basis.

She is now the owner of a franchise that distributes this highly sort after product. Her goal and motivation is to support others to also generate an above average extra and full-time income within the perfume industry.

Hannes started his career as a technician in the telephone communication business. He was later promoted to a senior technician. He then qualified as a technical teacher. During this period of time Hannes and Magda also managed the two above mentioned businesses.

The fact that Magda had a passion for perfume and that she was earning a better income than Hannes did as a teacher, convinced him to also become involved in the perfume industry.

Hannes is perfume manufacturer, trainer, distributor and franchisor of the company. He shares Magda's goal and motivation to support others to also generate an above average extra and full-time income within the perfume industry.
